The Milford Bank to Host a Photographic Walking Tour

Milford, CT, August 24, 2012 – The Milford Bank is pleased to announce it will host a photographic walking tour of Milford Center on Tuesday, September 25th, beginning at 5:30 pm. For this seminar, you'll explore Milford Center as you never have before.

Photographer Robert Harrington of Robert Harrington Studios will lead the tour, pointing out photo opportunities while explaining how to get the perfect shot. Casual technical advice will be given. All ages and skill levels are welcome.

Space for this seminar is limited. Please make your reservation today by calling Lynn Viesti Berube at (203) 783-5799.

Seminars are held by the Bank on a variety of informative subjects. Jorge Santiago, Senior Vice President of The Milford Bank said of the seminars, "We hold these seminars as an extra value added service to the communities we serve. It's been great to see and hear how enjoyable they have been to people."

The Milford Bank was founded in 1872 as a mutual institution and currently has total assets of approximately $380 million. The Bank has seven full service offices in Milford and Stratford, Connecticut and a loan production office in New Haven, Connecticut.
