Free Seminar Series Hosted by The Milford Bank

Milford, CT, May 10, 2012 – Throughout the month of June, The Milford Bank will hold weekly seminars on a variety of topics each Tuesday evening, beginning at 5:30 pm. Ever want to do things better, cheaper, faster or easier? Our classes can help you!

June 5th – Couponsing 101 with Two Frugal Fairfielders. During this session the ladies will share and discuss important ideas about how to live graciously and save money on everyday purchases.

June 12th – Easy Summer Entertaining with Linda McIntyre, Owner of Villa Gourmet. As quick and light summer recipes are prepared, Linda will share her tips for hosting the perfect casual summer gathering.

June 19th – Cool Summer Updos and Make-up with Mayra Segovia of F Studio Salon. Mayra and her team will show you how to get the perfect look for the season with quick and easy tips and demonstrations.

June 26th – How to update your wardrobe with accessories with Karen Quinn-Panzer, owner of Village Vogue Boutique. Karen will show you how versatile one simple piece of clothing can be.

Reservations are required as space for each of these fast-paced and entertaining seminars is limited. Please reserve your place today by calling Lynn Viesti Berube at (203) 783-5799.

Jorge Santiago, Senior Vice President of The Milford Bank said of the seminars, “We hold these seminars as an extra value added service to improve the lives of our customers and the communities we serve. I am personally very pleased to see how well-received these fun learning sessions have become.”

The Milford Bank was founded in 1872 as a mutual institution and currently has total assets of approximately $380 million. The Bank has seven full service offices in Milford and Stratford, Connecticut and a loan production office in New Haven, Connecticut.
